Jo. de la March.

Die Sabbati, 9. April, 1642.

THe Lords and Commons doe declare, that they intend a due and necessary reformation of the Government and Liturgy of the Church, and to take away nothing in the one or other, but what shall be evil, and justly offensive, or at least unnecessary and burthensome: And for the better effecting thereof, speedily to have consultation with Godly and learned Divines. And because this will never of it selfe attain the end sought therein, they will therfore use their utmost endeavours to establish learned and Preaching Ministers, with a good and sufficient maintenance throughout the whole Kingdom, wherein many darke Corners are miserably destitute of the means of salvation, and many poore Ministers want necessary provision.

H. Elsynge, Cler. Parl. D. Com.
